The RCMI Program and the Scientific Resources Development Unit at Universidad Central del Caribe

Invite you to:

Seminar:
Quantifying Proteolytic Activity in Health Disease:
- Predicting breast cancer outcomes using system biology tools
- Strokes in children with sickle cell disease
- HIV and cardiovascular disease

By:
Manu O. Platt, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Georgia Research Alliance Distinguished Cancer Scholar
Georgia Institute of Technology and Emory University

Friday, February 19, 2016
11:00 am – 12:00 pm
Room 204
Basic Sciences Building